Reading: We will finish our chapter books today. They will have a test over the chapter book on Tuesday. We will then be reading Goodbye Mr. Curtis. We will be working with verbs this week as well.

Science – We will be learning how animals and plants adapt to their environments. We will be learning how to make our environments better. They will have a test on Friday over Unit 9!

Art – We will be making their window clings. They will need to wear old clothes on Friday. This way if they get paint on their clothes it won't ruin them. We use paint shirts but the kids seem to still find a way to get paint on their clothes. THE PAINT WE USE FOR THIS PROJECT DOES NOT COME OUT!!! This is their Easter and Valentine's gift from me. The paints are expensive for this project, and therefore I buy them to do this project as a gift to them.

Field Trip Permission forms should be going out this week. Please be on the look out for them.

The students have most of their comprehension pages for their chapter books in their graded papers. The only ones that should be missing is today's and Monday's unless the student has been absent or hasn't completed it yet. You can use these to help them study for their tests.
